

What teacher would you take to college and why?

Mike Funaro - Mr. Botzer. He is by far my favorite and I wish I could have his guidance after high school.

Ashlyn Kirby - College who?

Ashlyn Waychoff - Mrs. Durila, because she has been my motivation throughout my high school years and helped shape me into who I am today.

Emily Miller - Mrs. Bennett because she is basically my support system around school these days.

AD Nelson - Mr. Powell, he is a person you can always talk to.

Kyle Gonzales - Mark Powell, so he gets yelled at the most.

Sheehan Aitken - Botzer, he would be the most helpful.

Laney Burke - Poletti because homemade Italian after exams sounds good and he is a fun guy.

Maria Cimino - Mrs. O'Lare, I need her to edit my papers.

Caylei Clinger - Poletti, he is understanding and helpful.

Abram King - Mrs. Booher, I hear she's a good cook.

Sydney Shook - Mr. Smith, so he could tutor me in my college classes and teach me lessons about life.

Nathan Mowery - Botzer because he actually knows what he's teaching and knows how to teach.

Isabella Armstrong - Mrs. Cotton because she keeps you on task and accountable while being very smart and sweet.

Brianna Dinch - I would take Mrs. Welsh to college since she's basically a second mom and gives the best advice.

Shelby Opic - Mr. Polansky so he can remind me that no matter how hard life gets there's always something to look forward to and there's so much joy in this world.

Charles Johnson - Dunn because he is on task and gets stuff done.

Chrissy Easterday - Smith, I'm going to need help with this bio degree.

Kyle Deyell - I would like to bring Mr. Botzer to college with me, because he knows so much and is just a human calculator.

Maddie Hoffman - Mr. Komula because he is my emotional support/school dad.

Anna Poach - Mrs. Cotton, she motivates me to succeed no matter what circumstances there are.

Haley Leavines - Botzer, he is very intelligent and always working to better his students.

Ian Anderson - Mr. Schwab, to act as a diplomat to the professors.

Shiane Kelley - Booher because English is rough.

Matt Day - Schwab so he can roast Ope there too.

Breea Gray - I have been fortunate to have had wonderful teachers throughout my academic career, who made even the most undesirable content seem enjoyable. If I could only take one, it would be Herr McLaughlin. He possesses the qualities I aspire to one day have: diligence, dependability, and humility. These qualities will be beneficial not only at the collegiate level but at the professional level as well.

Maura Hertig - Mr. Swarrow, I need his humor to get me through the days.

Madi Zajdel - Ms. Shaw, she is determined, sweet, and kind.

Emma Nuccetelli - Mrs. Cotton because she would push me to my full potential.

Mackenzi Yoders - Botzer because he's fun and would take the course for me.

Trevor Filer - Mr. Coyle because he has a boat.

Abigayle Dunn - Mrs. Migyanko because she's always the sweetest to me and she's helped me through a lot.

Erik Alvarez - Powell, Polansky, Swarrow. I've learned a lot from them.

Faith Gandy - Coach P because he always knows what to do and is a very reassuring/supportive person.

Patrick Mihalek - Mr. Dunn to be my bodyguard.

Mya Quarture - Mrs. O'Lare because she truly understands that we are all human and what that entails, and does her best to help her students. She focuses on the important, useful things we do and has the mindset of helping us in the long run rather than just having us complete the requirements of the course. She clearly has the knowledge and experience that her students can learn from and takes on a motherly role to us.
