

What teacher are you going to miss the most and why?

Kelsey Bennett- Mrs. Aliveto, she was like my school mom.

Raeghan Rush- Mrs. Booher, she always laughed with us and joked around.

Gage Martin- I will miss Mr. Koroly because of all the good laughs and jokes.

Sarah Whirlow- Mr. Polansky because he always knew how to make me laugh and he genuinely cares about his students.

Lexi Livingood- Mrs. Rush because of all our homeroom and lunchtime talks and the great advice she gives.

Morgan Mcmurdy- Poletti, Kinney, Dawson, and Aliveto because they're all my favorites.

Bradley Janusey- Mr. Tessmer, he was a cool learning support teacher.

Cheyann Ankrom- Ms. Burns.

Gina Gossett- Mrs. O'Lare is always there for you when you need someone to talk to.

Summer Ames- Mrs. Bennett. Her math classes taught me the most.

Evelyn Flickinger- Mr. Hilty because he was a great band director and I'm just realizing how I'll never be in his class again.

Kendle Haught- Mrs. Migyanko because I loved the many of her classes I took and they helped me to decide on my major in college.

Tori Main- Of all my teachers, I'm probably going to miss Mr. Koroly the most. He was always there to talk.

Makenzie Kockler- Mr. McCormick.

Zach Diedrich- Modrak: sense of humor.

Alyssa Stewart- Mr. Porterfield because he was honest and straight to the point.

Taylor Staub- All my senior class teachers because it was cut short to be able to be with them.

Caleb Skirpan- Mr. Crissman for always helping bring my creative thinking and love for CAD.

Christiana Bouvy- Mrs. Jenkins. She was the most supportive teacher I have ever had and was willing to listen to any problem I had. I will miss her most because she had her time at Trinity cut short, and despite not being with us anymore, has left the largest impact on me with her strength, kindness, and optimism even when she was battling her illness.

Haley Brumbaugh- Mr. Reihner because he is honestly the best teacher I could've had. He is a great teacher and an overall wonderful person.

Shelby Pattison- Mrs. O'Lare, she always put up with my craziness.

Nicole VanKirk- Mr. Stoner, he's very reasonable and overall an awesome guy.

Katie Havrila- I'm going to miss Mrs. Booher because everyone in my class always gave her a hard time and she always knew how to come back at them.

Andrew Kubacka- Botzer. No explanation needed.

Michaela Hull- Mr. Porterfield because he was always an honest and upfront person.

Caitlyn Scott- Mr. Polansky, since he has been supportive in mine and other students' lives. He always said that after high school we would forget him, but honestly, he's too unforgettable.

Rae Lynn Simpson- Mrs. Cotton because she was a wonderful teacher and all around understanding person!

Alina Mayton- Three way tie: Mr. Komula, Mr. Conkle, and Mrs. Bennett (Art) because they all inspired me to improve myself and challenge myself, and they were there to lift me up when I had downfalls.

Gabi Mauro- Herr Mac because he was a great teacher and I could always talk to him about anything and he'd give me great advice.

Patrick Bryant- Mr. Botzer never fails to make me laugh and was a phenomenal teacher who I learned from incredibly well.

Austin Sampson- Herr Mac. He is one of the best teachers I ever had.

Ben Reese- Probably Mr. Poletti because he and I share many things in common and he is one of those teachers that's always there for you when you need to talk to someone.

Cheyenne Clemens- Kinney.

Peyton Heidish- Mrs. Husk because she taught me accounting and I am going to use that in the future.

Mckenzi Miller- Mrs. Mountain.

Mia Shrum- This is a hard question, I have a few. I would say I am going to miss either Mr. Porterfield or Herr Mac the most because they both have taught me things that I can use in both school and life.
