

Many THS teachers also agreed on how much the Seniors have changed and matured.

Math teacher Mr. Phillips responded very sarcastically, "They got taller from 8th grade."

Banish spoke more delicately, "They have matured so much and grown into very good young men and women. From my first class, the maturity level [has] jumped incredibly. You can see the good men and women they will be one day."